

TEEN PANEL DISCUSSION: The Role of Parent Involvement in a Teen's Life

A panel of students, representing a variety of Bay Area high schools, shares their perspectives on how parents can be positively involved in their lives, what's helpful, and what's not. Join us for an enlightening and fascinating discussion followed by a question and answer session.

Find out how teens think parents might do better vis-à-vis:

- Transitions
- Academics
- Money (management, chores/jobs, budget)
- Social Behavior: drinking, driving, parties...

Marilyn Gradeck, Ph.D., licensed clinical and educational psychologist, and Kathy Vila, Ph.D., licensed psychologist, will moderate the panel.
